NOTE FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Briefing of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence on 18 April 1977 at 2:00 p.m.

1. Following our conversation today and in the absence of Bill Miller, I called Danny Childs, of the Committee staff, expressing your concern that Chairman Inouye and Vice Chairman Goldwater be in attendance at your meeting with the Committee next Monday afternoon. Danny is checking with Chairman Inouye's and Senator Goldwater's offices to assure that they will be back in town on Monday and will be back in touch with me tomorrow. He will also mention our conversation to Bill Miller.

2. Danny also suggested that you might want to discuss the ground rules for your meeting with Senator Hathaway. He is expected to be in the chair since the meeting has been scheduled largely because of budgetary considerations. (Senator Hathaway will be in town for a meeting with the Committee staff on Friday from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.) I think this is a good idea and probably can do no harm since Senator Hathaway has indicated at previous sessions, that if things get too sensitive, "press the red button." You may wish to confirm the above with Bill Miller at lunch tomorrow.
